for the month of December 1896, but as he absented himself from duty there after, it could not be availed for the temple. The matter was afterwards enquired into and the Value of the supply received by the Shan-bogue was recovered from him and paid to the Contractor.

The necessary Padikara Expenses of the temple during the month of December 1896 were however met by the Parpathegar at his own Cost, but the fixed Padikara allowance for the same month was drawn and credited to the Surplus fund of the institution in June 1897.

Sanction is now solicited to the Enclosed bill for Rs 14.8.7 to be refunded from the Surplus Fund of the District as the Order thereon:—

In his letter read above, the Dy Coar reports that the amount due for December 1896 on account of Paditara in the Sri Yogaharasimha Swami temple at Sahigram was not disbursed to the temple but that it was drawn and credited to Surplus Funds in June 1897.

The Padiara expenses of that month were however borne at the time by the Parpattegar of the temple and in view therefore to re-imburse the Parpattegar the amount paid by him the Dy Collr now submits the present bill for Rs 14-8-7 for the sanction of Govt.
In these circumstances, the bill is sanctioned and forwarded to the Collr for audit, the charge being met from the General Muzrai
Surplus Funds available at the credit of the Tuticorin District.
